

Women's Mini-Week Packing List 2020

The following packing list includes suggestions for your stay during Women's Mini-Week at Camp Lakotah, based on the assumption you are registered for the entire three days. Pack clothes that will allow you to feel comfortable at camp, keeping in mind that temperatures can range and will be cooler in the spring than summer. Despite heart-felt prayers for sun, rain has occurred on occasion during our stays, so keep that in mind as well.

Bedding / Bath:

- Pillow(s)
- Sleeping Bag or other bedding
- 1 memory-foam mattress topper? (for comfort – the single beds are very firm!)
- Bath towel and washcloth

Outdoor Necessities:

- Water bottle
- Sunscreen
- Wide-brimmed hat
- Bug spray
- Flashlight
- Rain poncho or other rain gear
- Beach or picnic blanket
- Folding Chair

Clothing:

- 3-5 shirts/T-shirts
- 1-2 pr. long pants/jeans (likely an extra this year)
- 1-2 pr. Shorts (likely less this year)
- 4 pr. undies (always include an extra!)
- 3 pr. socks
- 1 pr. comfortable walking shoes
- 1 pr. sandals or flip-flops (for the showers)
- 1-2 pr. pajamas for cool nights
- Sweatshirt (or 2)
- Sweater or light-weight jacket
- Swimsuit, cover-up, & beach towel (unlikely you will need this-but here's hoping!)

Women's Mini-Week Packing List 2020

Activity Supplies:

- Silent Auction item to donate
- Snacks & drinks (and cup) (and a good container to keep them from critters!)
- Camera
- Musical instrument
- Book: EDUCATED by Tara Westover
- Money for Massage Therapist, Silent Auction, and other activities with a fee
- Personal activities: Bible, favorite books, music, hobby materials, etc.

Personal Items:

- Toothbrush & toothpaste
- Shampoo & conditioner
- Hairbrush & dryer
- Body wash
- Cosmetics
- Medications
- Bug bite relief cream
- Floor mat/rug (for wood floor in cabins)
- Plastic Cup with Cover
- Thermal mug for warm beverage, if you like

Packing tip from some members of our committee

We have discovered that packing in a large Rubbermaid type container is very handy and allows for use as a nightstand as well :)

